FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

League of Women Voters Presents
Discussion of Critical Local Water Issues
With Ingham County Drain Commissioner

LANSING, Michigan

Ingham County Drain Commissioner Pat Lindemann will present answers to questions such as whether we need to be concerned about flooding in our local climate-threatened future and other environmental challenges and opportunities of local water management. He will also talk about landscaping with grasses to help the environment and plans for transforming the Red Cedar/Frandor area.

The event is Wednesday, October 24, from 7 - 8:45 p.m. at the Haslett Public Library, 1590 Franklin Street (not a sponsor). Hosted by the League of Women Voters of the Lansing Area's environment work group, the event is free and open to the public.

Questions may be directed to Ellen Link at (517) 651-2005.

The League of Women Voters is a national, nonpartisan, political organization that encourages the informed and active participation of citizens in their government, works to increase understanding of major public policy issues, and influences public policy through education and advocacy.
